Pretty in Pink

The new café inside Kendra Scott's flagship jewelry store in Austin radiates feminine energy, from the pink neon to the shiny gold espresso machine, bottles of Veuve Clicquot Rosé, and even glitter doughnuts, all hand-picked by the founder herself. Scott showcases local women-owned and -operated businesses, stocking the coffee shop bakery case with their goods and featuring their artwork in her retail space. "She has great friendships with a lot of the women entrepreneurs here in Austin, and she wants to support them," says spokeswoman Jenna Scherz. "Her whole motto is, 'Anything is possible in ATX.'" Stop in for happy hour daily (the frosé is a fave) or make a reservation for high tea on Fridays and Sundays. 1701 S. Congress Avenue. (512) 792-4581; kendrascott.com.
